

I am on the do not call list and have enjoyed not being interrupted in my daily life. If I wanted a company's service I would call them. It is my phone in my home and I should be allowed to determine who I want calling me. Please do not allow the banking industry the exemption to the do not call list.